There are many ways of contributing to this musical community. Every person is valued for what they bring to the whole regardless of what kind of financial contribution they are able to make. It is an important part of our mission to be an open, inviting place for all people to sing and to explore the unique ways they can enrich both the music and the vibrant community that is at the heart of Blue Moon Rising.

Paying in two or more payments.

If you would like to pay a partial or full membership fee in several installments, please feel free to make payments when it is convenient for you. We ask that final payments are made by April 24. There will be a clearly marked container at practice where you can submit a payment.

Please choose whichever of the following options best fits your life situation.
